

K-Love is spiritually uplifting to me. The local community needs christian radio for its health. A healthy christian community is in the best interest of everyone, even none christians. Therefore, I am against replacing it with none christian LPFM stations.